Steve Pickett
Account Executive

Steve's insurance career began in 1971 upon his graduation from Indiana University. He has over the past years worked in the capacity of an adjuster, underwriter, agent, agency owner and consultant. His concentration of insurance work has been in the commercial property casualty field; however, he is also licensed for life and health sales and service.

Steve's consulting expertise has provided him with knowledge of contracts and contract law as it relates to insurance agreements between all types of business entities and business relationships.
