McGowan Insurance Group and Jackson-McCormick Insurance Merge into One

Indianapolis, IN— June 4, 2019 — McGowan Insurance Group and Jackson-McCormick Insurance are excited to announce that on April 1st, 2019, the two agencies merged into one organization. “This is a wonderful development and opportunity for both our employees and our valued clients”, said Hugh M. McGowan, President and CEO. Todd Jackson, former President of Jackson-McCormick, will become Partner of McGowan Insurance Group and a member of the senior leadership team. The merged organization will adopt the McGowan name, have close to 50 employees and maintain three offices located in Indianapolis, Lebanon and Lafayette. Although Indiana-based, McGowan Insurance Group is licensed and actively does business throughout the country. Building on the long history and culture of both organizations, the Agency will continue to enhance its client-focused and collaborative business approach.
